

'FUTURE OF INSURANCE'

FUTURE OF INSURTECH

19 AUGUST 2021 FROM 12 NOON TO 1PM (SRI LANKAN TIME)

Digital partnerships are becoming a major force in insurance and are driving the next wave of insurtech across Asia. We will cover the evolution of insurtech, including current and emerging trends across life, health, and general insurance. Ultimately, what does it all mean for you, and how can you prepare for what comes next?

GEORGE KESSELMAN

is in charge of partnerships, growth and marketing as the Head of Commercial at ZA Tech in Singapore. He is a recognized fintech leader in Asia. Following a successful insurance career across AIG, AXA and Prudential, George had founded and grew InsurTech Asia Association. Prior to joining ZA Tech, George ran his own successful early stage insurtech venture. He holds an MBA from Ivey School of Business and B.Sc. Computer Engineering from University of Manitoba, Canada.
