DEFINITION OF STUDENT MEMBERSHIP CLASS

Member of the International Actuarial Association

SINGAPORE ACTUARIAL SOCIETY

Student : comprising undergraduate and graduate students of educational bodies, approved by the Council, undertaking courses in actuarial mathematics or actuarial science, or courses in disciplines which are included in the syllabi of examinations of any of the Recognised Actuarial Associations, or any other tertiary level course that Council deems fit.

A Student Member shall not be entitled to vote, to make nominations or to stand for election to Council.

A Student Member shall cease to be a member of the Society upon termination of his course of study, but shall be entitled to apply for membership under any of the other classes above.

A person may be admitted into the Society as Student if both conditions are fulfilled:

1. Full-time undergraduate or graduate student

2. Does not qualify for Fellow or Associate

If applying for other Classes of Membership, please use the Standard Application for Membership Form.

Definition of Good Standing with the Singapore Actuarial Society are based on the following conditions:

1. Members Obligations are fulfilled
2. No financial dues (with the Singapore Actuarial Society)
3. Compliance with the Governance Documents
4. No ongoing obligations because of the Society's disciplinary proceedings
5. Not knowingly involved (other than as a victim) in any other matter which might bring the Society into disrepute

Recognised Actuarial Associations

The Society recognises the following actuarial associations principally for the purposes of admission into the Society, and these associations shall be called Recognised Actuarial Associations for the purposes of this Constitution:

1. Actuaries Institute, Australia
2. Canadian Institute of Actuaries, Canada
3. Casualty Actuarial Society, United States of America
4. Institute and Faculty of Actuaries, United Kingdom
5. Society of Actuaries, United States of America
